

ATHLETES OF THE MONTH

The following athletes have been selected by The Outlook's sports editors after reviewing their stats and what head coaches and players had to say about their performances. All stats and records are as of the end of April to the first week of May.

Sam Higaki (12)

Named Most Valuable Player
2023 League Individual Champion

COURTESY OF SAM HIGAKI

Avi Schwarzkopf (12)

Second fastest 400 meter run time in school history and personal record 49.75 sec.

ANNA HE

Maya Yoo (11)

Placed third in PAL finals for triple jump with a personal record of 31-11.25

COURTESY OF MAYA YOO

Tiffany Ye (12)

11-3 overall record

COURTESY OF TIFFANY YE

William Ye (9)

14-0
perfect winning streak

COURTESY OF WILLIAM YE

Veraaz Khan (9)

#1 singles player
Secured CCS qualifying tournament after winning two matches against Woodside and Menlo-Atherton

COURTESY OF VERAAZ KHAN

Avery Misner (12)

45+ minutes of average playtime
4 turnovers every game

COURTESY OF AVERY MISNER

Geneva Mar (12)

"Geneva has been super hardworking for the past four years and always made sure to welcome new players and come up with plays or drills to improve our team."
- Amy Hagerman

COURTESY OF GENEVA MAR

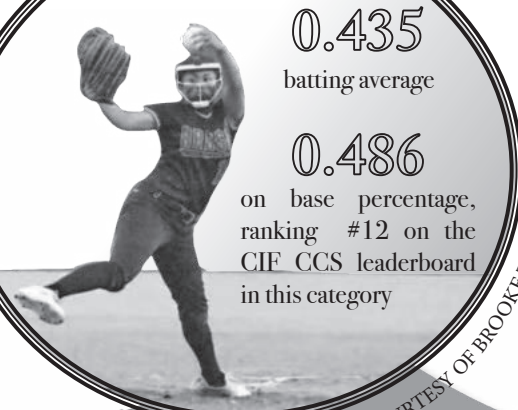

Cameron Sears (11)

0.270 hitting percentage, ranking #14 on the CIF CCS hitting percentage leaderboard
4.7 kills per set

COURTESY OF CAMERON SEARS

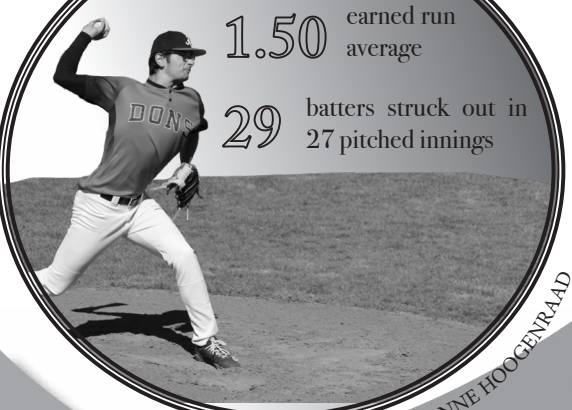

Brooke Tran (12)

0.435 batting average
0.486 on base percentage, ranking #12 on the CIF CCS leaderboard in this category

COURTESY OF BROOKE TRAN

Ashton Moniz-Witten (12)

1.50 earned run average
29 batters struck out in 27 pitched innings

SANNE HOOGENRAAD

Delainey Brandt (12)

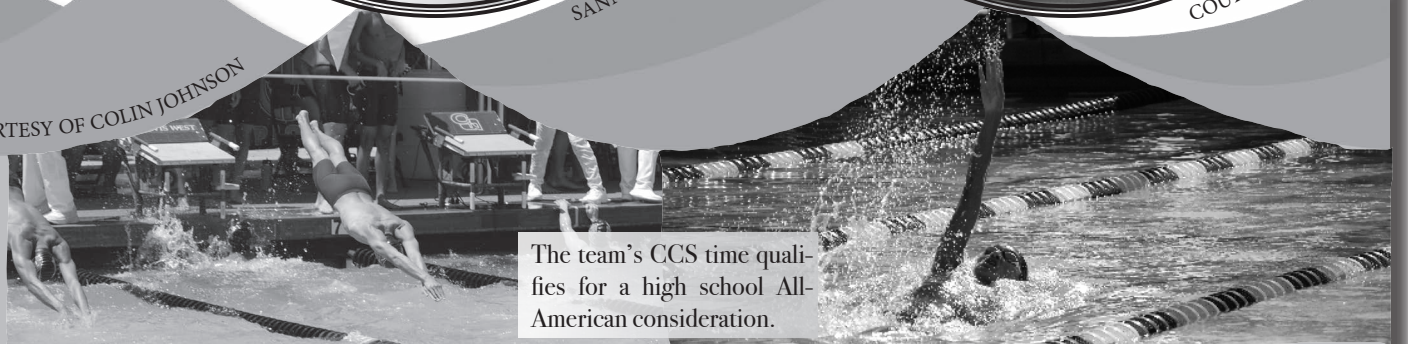

1:05.10 time in 100 meter breaststroke that qualified her for the CIF Swimming Championship

COURTESY OF DELAINAY BRANDT

4 x 200 medley relay team:

COURTESY OF COLIN JOHNSON

The team's CCS time qualifies for a high school All-American consideration.